

International Studies

International Studies is a course for students who wish to expand their knowledge of their own society and those beyond Australia. Students will engage in ideas, beliefs and practices across a wide range of cultures and economies with the emphasis on society being one global village.

Topics studied include:

- Global Food Supplies: On a global scale the world produces a surplus of food. Why then do people go hungry?
- Popular Culture: What is shaping Australian culture?
- International Rights and Responsibilities: What are a nation's rights and responsibilities in relation to current political tensions?
- The Globalisation of the World Economy: What is the impact of Transnational Corporations on world economies?
