Remembrance Day Assembly

A special Remembrance Day assembly was held on Monday last week. The 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, the moment when hostilities ceased on the Western Front in 1918, is a time to remember those who died or suffered for Australia's cause in all wars and armed conflicts. The ceremony was a solemn opportunity for the students to reflect on the contributions that many have made to ensure Australia is the country it is today. Thank you to Brendan Young for coordinating this event and the SRC students who ran the assembly and shared a historical perspective of the significance and impact of war.

Year 12 Graduation

It was lovely to see Year 12 2019 dressed in their formal attire for the NBSC Manly Campus Year 12 Graduation ceremony, held last Wednesday afternoon in the Freshwater Senior Campus Gymnasium. Along with achievements being formally acknowledged, it was a relaxing and enjoyable celebration of the completion of high school. The afternoon included some wonderful musical items by our Jazz Orchestra and refreshments organised by Year 11 parents before the students headed to their formal in the evening.

Thank you to our special guests; Mr Tristan Tulloch from Macquarie University, Ms Lauren Ribbon from The University of Sydney and Ms Denise Goldstein from Freshwater Community Bank. Additionally thank you to our wonderful Manly Campus staff who coordinated this special event, in particular Kathy O'Sullivan, Lina Izossimova and Wendy Monteleone.

NESA Nominations in HSC Practical Components

Congratulations to the following students who received NESA nominations in their HSC Practical Components for exemplary work.

- Dance - Callback: Neve Morgan, as well as Year 11 accelerated students Mia Kha and Colina Zhang
- Music - ENCORE: Maia Hopf, Hanano Kijima and Elden Loomes
- Design & Technology - Shape: Luke Nelson and Kelly Walters
- Visual Arts - ARTEXPRESS: Moe Iwasawa, Hayley Gayfer and Harry Peters

A special mention to Kaya Vuletic who, along with the above mentioned ARTEXPRESS nominees had their work selected for Express Yourself, a selection of works from Northern Beaches schools, selected by the Manly Art Gallery Curator. This exhibition will be held in March 2020.

Please see the page of photos of all Manly Campus HSC Visual Art students Major Body of Works at the end of my newsletter article.

Year 10

With Year 10 examinations and assessments completed, students will be participating in either Work Experience or Australian Business Week (ABW) next week. Both of these programs provide students with invaluable experiences and insights into the world of work and business development. At ABW, our students will be working in teams with students from each of the other NBSC campuses to develop a business model, plan and campaign to promote a product that they have identified as fulfilling a need in society. Thank you to Ms Rixon and Ms Colby for organising and coordinating both of these worthwhile experiences.

Year 9 Camp

After delays due to bushfires and a relocation from Forster to Morisset, Year 9 finally departed on their much-anticipated camp on Monday morning. With activities ranging from sailing and kayaking to high ropes and the flying fox, year 9 had a fantastic and busy time building harmony and testing themselves. The highlight was the commando expedition on the second night, with students trying to, and eventually beating, the teachers in the darkness of the bush setting. The camp also provide an opportunity for students to develop their leadership skills through training for future programs such as peer support. All students represented the school with maturity and enthusiasm. The staff at the camp were impressed with the range of talents that our students demonstrated.

A big thank you to Mr Crooks and Ms Rixon, for their coordination of the event, the office staff for their administration support and also to Mr Forsyth, Dr Molnar, Ms Truong, Mr Nguyen, Ms Prideaux-Remin, and Mr Newcomb who ensured the camp was such a success.

Strings Soiree and Jazz Night Out

I had the pleasure of attending both the Strings Soiree and the Jazz Night Out last Friday and Saturday evenings. Both events were an outstanding showcase of Manly Campus musical talent and testament to the depth of talent at our school. Congratulations to all musicians for the impressive and entertaining performances on both evenings and particularly to those who performed both nights. Special thanks go to Brian Buggy, Elizabeth Scott and Craig Driscoll for their enthusiastic, expert guidance of the String Ensemble, Chamber Orchestra and Jazz Bands throughout the year and to our Year 12 students who once again shared their impressive talent with the audiences.

Australian Mathematics Competition Results

Congratulations to the 25 Year 7 to 10 students who gained High Distinctions in the Australian Mathematics competition held last term. These students were placed in the top 3% for Year 7 and 8 and top 5% for Years 9 and 10. Of the 480 students who sat the test, a further 133 were awarded Distinctions for their efforts.

Congratulations to:

- Chun-Ta Wu (Year 8) who will be representing NSW to play in Australian Schools Under 15 Golf Championship. He was selected as part of the NSW state team.

In this regular feature, we like to recognize students who have achieved highly in school and community events, competitions and activities. Demonstrations of the school ethos of academic excellence, personal best and giving back to the community deserve to be recognized. Parents are welcome to phone or email the school any achievements that we may not be aware of, for inclusion in The Weekly Pines.

The Power of a Project

On the first weekend of this term, Fergus Clarkson performed as a featured artist at the Australian Poetry Slam National Final. Poetry slam is a competition arts event, in which poets perform spoken word poetry before a live audience and a panel of judges. Fergus stated that ‘getting to perform at the Opera House has been a dream of mine for a while and seeing it finally come to fruition was brilliant. I performed really well and it was a great feeling to be able to comfortably share the stage with some of the best spoken-word artists in the country’.

This fantastic achievement is not only testament to Fergus’ own abilities, but also the benefits of authentic ‘real-world’ learning experiences offered through the Project Based Learning (PBL) model. This is why our school runs PBL programs such as Praxis and the Independent Learning Project (ILP) in junior years. Fergus’ own journey to the stage of the Opera House started in a classroom last year – when he focused his ILP on the development of his poetry and performance skills for the sake of spreading a social justice message. He had started his project with the inquiry question ‘how can I raise awareness about climate change through poetry?’. By August he had competed in the NSW Poetry Slam State Final, and in November he featured on national news broadcasts performing his poetry in front of over a thousand people at the Strike 4 Climate Action rally in Martin place. Fergus also started our school Poetry Club that meets each week and is going strong – building the passion for spoken-word amongst students across all years.

Would Fergus been able to achieve all this without the ILP program? Most likely, but it would be satisfying to think that the ILP provided him with a greater opportunity to follow his passion, find inspiration, shape his ‘product’ and adapt to the challenges he faced in producing it. Such programs enable staff to transcend the traditional models of teachers as transmitters of content; to facilitators of such authentic learning experiences. After all, the worst thing you can do for a clever student is get in their way.

Help Needed for Year 12 Design & Technology

2020 Year 12 Design and Technology students need your expertise.

We need individuals who have experience with prosthetics or health professional working with prosthetics, someone involved in transport industry systems, and a sound designer to provide feedback to Year 12 Design and Technology students.

If you can help please contact Kate Farrow on kate.farrow@det.nsw.edu.au

Music Incursions in Term 4

The vocal ensembles had an incursion in Week 3 to dedicate significant time to some difficult repertoire which was commissioned, thanks to Melbourne musician Jessica Joan Graham. The vocal ensemble is currently working on a mash up of two songs from the hit musical 'Hamilton' and Tides is undertaking Dvorak's famous aria 'Song to the Moon'.

On 11 November, the Year 10 students who are undertaking senior music participated in a masterclass with composer / performer / actor / director / all around great teacher, Richard Fowler. He gave the students valuable advice on how to improve repertoire and technique as they started the transition to senior studies.

Year 12 2020 History Extension

Our enthusiastic Year 12 History Extension students attended an excursion in the city at the Sydney Living Museums (including The Mint and the State Library) on Friday 8 November. This annual event is designed to help students kick-start their major project, as well as provide advice, inspiration and much-needed guidance about how to engage in effective research.

The keynote address was by Dr Paul Irish, author of Hidden in Plain View, about the history of Aboriginal people in coastal Sydney following colonisation, followed by panel discussion from working historians about their process. Students then attended a number of workshops and lectures on how to refine their research question and other valuable advice on how to link their project to the other components of the course.

The day was capped off by a panel discussion with four students who excelled in the course last year, including our very own Louis Festa (G18) whose project essay on the Smithsonian Museum's controversial Enola Gay exhibition was last year's winner of the HTA's American Studies prize.

Overall it was a hugely worthwhile experience for History Extension students, who came away even more eager to get stuck into their projects. On a fun side note, we also happened to score the Student's Lucky Door Prize AND the Teacher's one!

Year 9 Camp

Student Report

Thanks to global warming and the scorching Australian summer/ spring, our campsite at Forster was completely on fire (maybe an exaggeration, but it was cancelled). However, a little determination from our legendary year advisor, Mr Crooks, resulted in a replacement camp five days later in Morisset. After a relatively short few hours of music, food and excitement, we stepped off the bus and into a world of high ropes, ping pong and dodgy camp food (which wasn't that bad). Our group kicked off with sailing and kayaking; two hours of sore arms and capsizing into Lake Macquarie. Afterwards, we went back to camp for butter chicken and pasta, followed by ice cream. Then the real fun began...peer support training. Thankfully, we got chocolate milk and choc chip cookies afterwards to boost our energy levels for the most intense games of around-the-world ping pong. About half our year group surrounded a ping pong table, screaming and yelling so loud that the camp instructors were surely judging us - quite a highlight of this camp.

After a very late night, we woke the next morning exhausted but ready for the day ahead. The day's activities included Survivor, Leap of Faith and Giant Swing; challenges that relied completely on teamwork and courage. We all had so much fun getting dunked in smelly water, pushing our limits by jumping off a 9m pole and getting the worst wedgies while dropping and swinging from a height of 15m.

That night, despite challenge night being planned, we were able to convince the teachers and camp instructors to change this to commando. Even though the teachers' camo outfits paired with their water guns was to be highly commended, the ultimately superior students did win in the end. With, of course, another half hour of ping-pong, we all got into bed on a high, only to be woken again at 6am the next day. The early start didn't sit well with some people, rolling out of bed 50 minutes after they were supposed to wake, however there wasn't a moment to waste as we all wanted to make the most of our last day. With four pancakes drowned in maple syrup sitting happily in the stomach, we walked over to our last few activities; High Ropes and Dual Flying Fox. The last game in our activity group consisted of us, again, using teamwork to fit all 25 of us swinging from a rope onto a platform of only one square meter. Soon after that we had the last meal of camp and were packing buses to leave.

It was so sad driving away from camp, but we all had an insanely amazing time, better than what most of us had expected. It was such a great way to release any tension and wrap up assessment period, as well as get to know one another better. So grateful and hoping for another experience like this again sometime in the future.

Year 12 Graduation

Jazz Orchestra including graduating Year 12's performed last week at the school's Year 12 Graduation ceremony. They played 3 pieces including the theme tune to Rocky as the official party entered the room which brought a few wry smiles to theirs and the audience's faces!

Superb Soirée

The annual String Soirée last Friday was a wonderful evening of music from our String Ensemble and Chamber Orchestra.

The String Ensemble and Brian Buggy delighted the audience with a range of pieces from Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik to a melody of American folk songs and an original piece, Integration Overture that Brian composed many years ago representing the challenge of combining a wind and strings ensemble into one cohesive group. Solo performances by Year 12 students Xianda Ren on violin and Elden Loomes on cello were also highlights of the evening. Chamber Orchestra, under the skilful direction of Elizabeth Scott, treated the audience to a performance of an entire symphony - Schubert's Symphony No.3 followed by Toccata by Frescobaldi and concluding with a lively piece by Rimsky-Korsakov, Dance of the Tumblers. It was a magical evening in a beautiful setting.

The night was capped off with a fitting tribute by Cath Whalan to Brian Buggy, who is stepping down as String Ensemble Director at the end of the year and going back to retirement! We are so very grateful for all that he has achieved with our strings program over the last 4 years and the incredible commitment and dedication he has shown to our players, writing and arranging pieces to ensure students are able to participate and perform no matter their experience or ability. He was presented with a stunning bouquet of flowers, cufflinks, a mug and a huge cake! Thankyou Brian from us all, we wish you well.

Thank you also to Sally Matthews, our wonderful liaison, who organised the event, her daughter Millie, for producing the poster and program and to all the supportive strings parents and students for helping with the transport of equipment on the night.

Congratulations and thanks to all!

Jazz Night Out

The families and friends of jazz band members at the Jazz Night Out were treated to a full evening of entertainment last Saturday at the Showroom at Dee Why RSL. One hundred jazz students from Years 7-12 in five jazz bands conducted by Craig Driscoll and guest musician and vocalist, Dane Laboyrie, created music that was energetic, fabulous and a whole lot of fun. Many of the tunes were jazz classics that had the crowd of all ages tapping their feet, singing and clapping along.

The professionalism of the students was remarked on by many who found it hard to believe they were listening to school-age jazz performers. Dane Laboyrie performed a great set with Jazz Orchestra as well as jumping in to play trumpet at every opportunity with the other bands. Among the highlights was the amazing standard of the junior jazz bands and their vocalists (Isobel Young, Paulo Lieghio and Brandon Wu), the intermediate and senior bands and their vocalists (Sonakshi Sharda, Indi Pike and Aja Elshaikh) as well as the outstanding solos by Maia Hopf (alto saxophone), Jay Mendham (trumpet) and Adrian Wong (clarinet). The finale pieces had all one hundred students playing and the parents cheering for more!

Congratulations to Craig for his inspiration and love of jazz at Manly Campus. It's his favourite event of the year. A special thank you to Mel Corner and Sarah Dowse for planning and coordinating the event, it really is a big undertaking. Thank you too to all families who assisted transporting gear to and from the venue.

Covers Band Recording Session at TAFE

The Covers Band, consisting of students from Years 7-11, were given the wonderful opportunity of a professional recording session at TAFE St Leonard's studios a couple of weeks ago. For many of them, it was the first time they had been in such an environment which is so different to performing on stage. The students thoroughly enjoyed the day and they have a follow up session on Friday 22 November to finetune their performances. All students will be given a copy of their recordings.

Thank you to Craig for directing them and to Mel Corner and Jen Moran for transporting the students to and from the venue.

AGM and Term 4 Band meeting, Monday 25 November 8pm, library

Come to the AGM on Monday to find out what's happening with our band program and consider joining the friendly and enthusiastic group of 20+ parents who make up the band committee.

The band committee is especially seeking the involvement of parents from the years 7-10 age groups as parents from senior years are moving on.

We are especially looking for a secretary (to distribute agendas and take minutes once per term and participate in the band executive), and an assistant treasurer (to provide support to our band treasurer, Jill Johnson).

Helping our Bands – a win/win!

The band program thrives when good people like you help out.

- Helping out is a fun and truly rewarding way to get to know the students, staff and parents.
- There is a role to fit your work hours, skills and interests – some are regular throughout the year, others are short term.
- Most band committee members are working parents so there is no expectation that you are free mid-week. The committee meets one night per term.
- To find out more, email Band President Mel Corner at andyandmel@gmail.com
